2023

Welcome to ICOTEM 2023

ICOTEM 2023 is a forum for the presentation and discussion of research topics in the fields of Technology Management and Operations and is expected to bridge the gap between different research groups and promote the development of new disruptive multidisciplinary research groups. The main objective is to explore the role of Technology, Engineering, and Innovation in supporting the fast pace imposed by technological advancements and the operation of global markets.
